THE REDPATH CHAUTAUQUA

The big Chautauqua tent on the City School grounds has been filled to its utmost capacity each afternoon and evening during the engagement, which comes to a close tonight. Each number on the varied program has been the best of its kind, and the audiences have been duly appreciative.

On Friday afternoon the program comprised a grand concert by the New York Opera Singers, who rendered a delightful program of classical selections. All the numbers were liberally applauded. In the evening the New York Opera Singers presented another pleasing program of music. The star event of the week's program was the appearance of Opie Reid, author, wit and lecturer, who held his audience by a masterly and forceful lecture on the subject, "Human Nature and Politics," an address full of oratorical gems, pungent wit and pathos, delivered in the inimitable manner of the famous author of "The Juckins," and other noted works of fiction that have delighted thousands.

Saturday afternoon a program of musical selections by the orchestra, followed by an inspiring address, "Back to the Farm," by Hon. C. G. Jordan. At night Gilbert and Sullivan's famous light opera, "Pinafore" was delightfully sung by a splendid company, with special scenic and lighting effects. Can anyone who has ever heard this tuneful opera forget the melodies it produced?

Yesterday's program embraced the Children's Hour in the morning, and a lecture on the subject, "Modern Unrest," by Donald H. McGibney, a platform orator of national renown. The night program was taken up with the presentation of the delightful American comedy that captivated all America, "Nothing But the Truth," presented in a most pleasing manner by a thoroughly capable cast. The engagement will close to-day with the following programs: Morning—Children's Hour; afternoon—Children's Pageant, "The Good Fairy Thrift"; evening—Concert by The Swiss Yodlers and Singers; Lecture, subject, "Human Efficiency," by Ralph Parlette, editor of The Lyceum Magazine.

PETITION PROTESTING AGAINST PARDON.

A petition protesting against the granting of a pardon to Henry Feltman and others, of Covington, who were convicted on the charge of plotting against the Government during the late world war, has been in circulation in Paris. The petition was signed by several hundred citizens of the city and county. Feltman is a wealthy cigar manufacturer.

BODY OF WALKER WHITE TAKEN TO RICHMOND.

The body of Walker White, of Richmond, who was found dead on his bed in the Fordham Hotel, under what pointed very strongly to suicide, was taken to Richmond Friday, accompanied by his brother, Robert White, and Neale Bennett, of Richmond. Later developments not told in THE NEWS account of the unfortunate man's end showed that he had on a table in his room, a cup which did not belong to the hotel, and which contained the drainings of carbolic acid. Other circumstances which developed afterward strongly supported the theory of suicide.

White was forty-two years old and was unmarried. He had not been in the best of health, but it was not known that he was contemplating self-destruction. He is survived by one brother, Robert White, of Richmond, and five sisters, Mrs. Patrick Sullivan, Mrs. William Munday, Mrs. John McCord, Mrs. Len Minter, of Richmond, and Mrs. Robert Minter, of Fonesboro. Until recently he had conducted a grocery in Richmond, which had been his home for a number of years, and was well-known among the business men of Richmond and throughout Madison county. He disposed of his business some time ago, since which time he had not been actively engaged.

In commenting on the case, the Richmond Register says: "Coroner Davis, of Bourbon county, informed the Daily Register that his verdict was death resulting from heart disease. He said that a number of newspaper correspondents had sent out a report that Mr. White took his own life by carbolic acid poisoning, but that there was nothing to justify such a report, as no bottle or other evidence of such act had been found, and it was apparent that heart disease had caused his death."

A PATRIOTIC HOUSE.

It is "Flag Day" every day with the R. C. Ruggles Motor Co., local garage and automobile supply house in this city. The Ruggles Co. has kept a big United States flag floating for many months from a flag staff on the roof, immediately over the entrance to their place. Old Glory greets the eye from every direction every day. There may be other patriotic firms who display the national colors from their houses every day, but so far THE NEWS has failed to discover them. Not even the city and county buildings or the local Federal building are so decorated.

Conditions of this race will be: Shots at 50 targets; each shooter will be given a certain number of targets for his handicap; any ties will be shot off. Several other shooters and business men of Paris have kindly offered to give trophies to the Club, which has been accepted, and will be contested for at early dates.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

Mrs. Mack Lizer, of Lair, and niece, Mrs. Harold Filer, of Dayton, O., met with an accident recently, in which both were injured. While driving over the railroad bridge at Lair, an L. and N. train passed over, scattering their horse, which became unmanageable, turning the buggy over and throwing the occupants out. Mrs. Filer sustained a broken collar bone, a dislocated shoulder, and Mrs. Lizer a sprained ankle. They were removed to the home of Mrs. Lizer, where their injuries were given attention.

FALLS TWO STORIES: ONLY SLIGHTLY INJURED.

The good luck that attends some people was manifested Friday afternoon when George Williams, a colored porter at the Hotel Fordham, fell from a second story window, where he had been engaged in washing the windows.

Williams' fall was a distance of forty feet, and in doing that distance he made several revolutions in the air, landing on his side. No bones were broken. Williams' injuries consisted of a few bruises and scratches. On getting up he looked up at the window, and remarked, "Gee whiz! If I had fell a little more I might have been hurt up some." The window was in the room in which Walker White, of Richmond, died the same morning.

TAX COMMISSIONER'S NOTICE.

Wishing to correct a mistaken idea that seems to be current relative to the law governing listing of taxes, we wish to notify the public that the law is the same as last year, and it is each one's duty to report in person, if possible, at our office in basement of Court House. You will kindly note this and call at your earliest convenience.

SIMMS BUYS FINE YEARLING

Edward F. Simms recently purchased of E. C. Christian, of Lexington, the brown yearling colt by Sweep, out of Fascination, by Hanover's son, Buck Massie, for $2,750. Mr. Simms will ship soon to Saratoga forty-two yearlings to be broken under the supervision of Trainer Charles Hughes. Twenty-three of these are Nursery Stud yearlings purchased from Major August Belmont by Simms & Oliver, and the remainder are those reserved by Simms at Xalapa Farm.

PARIS ORCHESTRA AT LEXINGTON.

Gregg's Orchestra, playing at the Grand Opera House and The Alamo, in this city, has been secured for the season of Sunday afternoon and evening concerts to be given through the summer at Woodland Park, in Lexington. The orchestra will be assisted by Prof. Carl Lambert, of the University of Kentucky, a musician of unusual ability.

Mr. Gregg, who has charge of the orchestra, was formerly in charge of the orchestra at the Ben Ali Theatre, in Lexington. He has been in charge of the orchestra playing at the local picture houses for several months. The orchestra rendered the first concert of the series Sunday afternoon and evening to large audiences seeking recreation in the out-of-doors, and proved very satisfying to the musical tastes of Lexingtonians. Many from Paris spent the afternoon at the Park, taking in the concert.

MASIE HOSPITAL NOTES

Hannah Beatty, a colored woman residing near Clintonville, was taken suddenly ill Saturday and was brought to the Hospital Annex. She was operated on for appendicitis by Drs. Kenney & Stoelcker, and is doing nicely.

All the patients in the institution are doing well, with prospects for recovery. Careful attention is working wonders with the patients. The Hospital is ready and willing at all times to receive donations of fruits and supplies for the larder. These are always welcome. Send them in at any time, and they will be thankfully received and greatly appreciated.

LATONIA MEETING CLOSES

Equaling the American turf record for one and one-half miles, 2:29 3-5, and clipping four-fifths of a second off the Latonia mark, Minto II, W. V. Travis' 6-year-old imported son of Sundridge—Miss Ronald, won the Daniel Boone Handicap, worth $11,225 to the winner, the feature offering of the closing day of the racing season at Latonia, Saturday. Only one other horse ever ran as fast as Minto II, that being Thundereap, which made the same time at this distance at Laurel, Md., October 11, 1919.

This was the first running of the Daniel Boone Handicap, and it has a place to stay on the Latonia roster, as it drew out one of the largest crowds of the season, with the exception of Independence Day. Every point of vantage in the grandstand, clubhouse and on the lawn was taken, and the betting pavilion was a seething mass all afternoon. Luckily, the springlike weather continued, and this made conditions more bearable for the racegoers, who took the crowding and jamming good naturedly.

THE NEWS GETS RESULTS

As an evidence of pulling power of judicious advertising in THE NEWS we reproduce the following letter from a well-known national advertiser.

"Chicago, Ill., July, 1920.
"Publisher THE NEWS,

"Paris, Ky.
"Dear Sir:—We are enclosing herewith our check for space used during the past quarter, and we want to extend our most hearty thanks for the general good position and consideration given our schedule.

"In closing our advertising year for the season of 1919 and 1920 it is gratifying to note that almost without exception our sales have increased in your territory, and we attribute this to a very great extent to the influence that your paper has upon the consumer.

BUYS FINE CATTLE.

Jonas Weil, of Lexington, representing the Nagle Packing Co., of Jersey City, N. J., purchased of Tolle Young, of near Paris, three carloads of fancy Hereford corned cattle, averaging 1,400 pounds, at sixteen cents a pound, less shrinkage. This is one of the finest bunches of fat cattle bought in Central Kentucky this season, and the price paid for them is said to have been the highest that has been received here this year.

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

The call for a strong Commercial Club in Paris is essentially a call for community loyalty. It is a call for united effort to do needed things that individual strength can not perform.

No man is big enough to make Paris the city it should be, although there are some men in a position to contribute more to that end than others. Further, no small group of individuals is strong enough to secure the desired result in the way of civic and commercial development in a community as rich in resources and advantages as Paris.

Cities do not grow without a cause for it. Natural advantages are a great factor, but some growing cities have overcome serious deficiencies in this respect and succeeded. Paris does not lack for natural advantages. It has a wealth of them. What it does lack is organized energy to build upon them. In other words, it takes advantages plus builders to make a city.

The plan of operation adopted by the re-organized Paris Commercial Club, providing for departments with fixed responsibility and the employment of a trained secretary, will furnish the necessary organized energy if the proper support is forthcoming from the citizens of this community. Experience has shown us that the $5.00 a year organization, with no fixed responsibility and a lack of trained methods employed by the live commercial organizations of the present day, leads but to failure.

Will Paris recognize her opportunity and back the efforts of the leaders in the new club with a support that will leave no doubt as to her future? Half-hearted support will not bring success, lack of faith will discourage it and destructive criticism will kill it. The answer lies with you, Mr. Individual.

LIVESTOCK TRANSACTIONS

Livestock shipments from local dealers are on the increase. Caywood & McClintock, of Paris, shipped Saturday to the Cincinnati market two carloads of cattle weighing an average of 1,250 pounds, for which they paid thirteen cents a pound, and to the Jersey City market 250 lambs, for which they paid fourteen to fifteen cents a pound.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS

With the exception of Councilman Hugh Brent, a full Board of Council was present at the recent meeting of the Council, presided over by Mayor E. B. January. A large amount of important business was transacted.

An invitation was extended to the Orphan Brigade, of Morgan's Men Association, to hold their next annual meeting in this city, with the suggestion that September be selected as the date for the meeting. The Council rejected as excessive the bid of the Lampton & Burke Construction Co., for repairing of Third street with improved material. A petition from the residents of Parrish avenue, asking for the installation of a sanitary sewer system on that street was referred to the Improvement Committee.

The Council adopted an ordinance regulating the parking of automobiles on the streets of the city, and one imposing a license on automobiles used as pleasure machines. The adoption of these ordinances was preceded by the granting of further time to the police department to report why they were unable to enforce the present ordinance affecting the parking of machines. Mayor January was authorized to purchase a carload of Kentucky rock asphalt for repairing Main street from Bank Row to Tenth street. An ordinance imposing a license of $250 a year on labor bureaus and employment agencies operating in the city was adopted by the Council.

Mrs. Russell Mann and A. B. Hancock were ordered to have concrete pavements laid in front of their property, on Pleasant street, the work to begin by July 20. City Engineer Boerner was instructed to have such streets as will be ready on arrival of the street oil recently purchased. A building permit was granted Winnie Buford for the construction of a residence on Fourteenth street, to cost approximately $1,200. After approving a batch of claims against the city, an adjournment was taken until Tuesday night, when further business matters will come up for consideration.

The incorporators are B. P. Wooten, W. W. Reeves and Irvine J. Dempsey. Mr. Dempsey is a son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. ENGLISH EDITOR COMPLIMENTS COX AND HARDING

Robert Donald, chairman of the Empire Press Union and former editor of the Daily Chronicle, of London, England, commenting upon the American nominations, said: "That the highest political office in the world should be occupied by a newspaperman is a compliment to the profession in every country. Both Cox and Harding are fine types of American citizenship, who have risen to the top of a profession in which actual hard work and merit alone count. The press is the most powerful force in modern life, and the men who make it should be able to win the highest honors their country can give. The next President, whether his name be Cox or Harding, will be held in great esteem by journalists as a man who won the highest honor for their craft."

ORGANIZING REPUBLICAN WOMEN OF KENTUCKY

Mrs. John W. Langley, wife of Representative Langley, Tenth Kentucky district, who is one of the advisory body of the Republican National Committee, is organizing the women in Kentucky for Senator Harding. Representative Langley posed with Senator Harding for moving picture men before the nominee felt for Marion, O.

Motive Power Weak.

Lura Florence has heard a great deal of talk about mamma's electric being without power and the necessity of charging it. One day she was told to remove her rubbers and take them to her room. She failed to do this and later was asked why she had not done so. She replied: "I did not have power enough; I had to stop and charge up."

Get your happiness out of your work or you will never know what real happiness is.

OFFICIAL WASHINGTON AP- PRAISES PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATES

Political Washington is really the most non-political city in the United States, and the near-up view of public men reveals their personal characteristics and tastes to residents of the Capital in a manner very similar to that by which residents of a large or small city discover the perfections or imperfections of Mayors, Aldermen and Supervisors. The mere fact that a man is a member of one party or another gets him nowhere in Washington—but he may be a Democrat, Republican, or have a common garden variety of political ideas, and if he has the "goods on him" he will be given full credit for his abilities. In truth, Washington is alert to discover the common-place, the unusual, the constructive, the conservative, the radical, and all other qualities that distinguish statesmanship. Under this human microscopic lens there is revealed the true human qualities of the leaders in National thought. Of the nominees at the Chicago and San Francisco conventions, all except Governor Coolidge have been analyzed by the Capital City. And in a spirit of absolute fairness, divested of bias or prejudice, it may be said that Senator Harding, Governor Cox and Franklin D. Roosevelt represent the highest type of manhood known to public service. Governor Coolidge has not figured in the Washington situation, and judgment concerning him must be based upon his record in New England. But in Washington the three men are known to everybody, and the National Capital takes off its hat in recognition of the splendid selection of candidates that have been chosen as the standard bearers of the great political parties.

WOMEN URGED TO ATTEND CITIZENSHIP COURSE

Mrs. Josephine Grauman Marks, State Press Chairman of the Kentucky Federation of Women's Clubs, is sending letters from her office at Washington through the press, urging the women of the State to attend the Course in Citizenship offered in the University of Kentucky Summer School during the week beginning July 19, 1920. Mrs. Marks is anxious to have the program which the University has worked out brought to the attention of every club woman in the State. The new responsibility of women in the State of Kentucky will be emphasized in the course and this new responsibility will be the basis of many club discussions in the women's clubs this fall. In the opinion of Mrs. Marks it is desirable that as many women as possible avail themselves of this course in order that they may be better prepared to act as leaders in this work in their own communities.

PERENNIAL YOUTH

Dr. Eugene Fisk, President of the Life Extension Institute of New York has enunciated the theory that it is within the bonds of science to prolong human life to a matter of 1900 years. Dr. Fisk's interesting speculation was delivered at the annual meeting of the New York Medical Society, held on March 23. While admitting the prospect of such a prolongation of life was rather a terrible one, Dr. Fisk was assured that the postponement of middle and old age, and the doubling and even trebling of the ordinary span of life, was not a fantastic idea. His opinion was based on the successful achievements of science in stretching the life of the ordinary fruit fly to 900 times its usual length, and after citing examples of longevity exhibited by the turtle and by various trees, he argued that "youth is a physical state and not a function of time." Old age, said the doctor, was premature. By eliminating the conditions conducive to physical collapse it would be possible to find a means of performing for human beings what is already performed for the fruit fly. The probability of science succeeding in prolonging life to 1900 years was not very great, as before that state of affairs came to pass "changed conditions may abolish all life on the earth."

"Schopenhauer's Bible."

The "Oupnekhat" is a Latin translation of the "Upanishads," made by Anquetil-Duperron, from a Persian version of the Sanscrit original, which was published at Strassburg, in two volumes quarto, 1801-1802, under the title "Oupnekhat, id est, Secretum Legendum." It consists of a group of treatises, expounding a general system of mystical pantheism, which arose as a development of the more theosophic element in the Vedas. It is believed that this influenced Schopenhauer not a little in his writings.

Value of Youthful Thinking.

We are learning that the fabled foundation of youth lies in ourselves; is in our own mentality. Perpetual rejuvenation and renewal are possible through right thinking. We look as old as we think and feel, because thought and feeling maintain or change our appearance in exact accordance with their persistence or their variations. It is impossible to appear youthful and remain young unless we feel young. Youthful thinking should be a life habit.—Orison Swett Marden in Chicago Daily News.

QUESTION CLEARED UP

Paris Readers Can No Longer Doubt The Evidence

Again and again we have read of strangers in distant towns who have been cured by this or that medicine. But Paris' pertinent question has always been "Has anyone here in Paris been cured?" The word of a stranger living a hundred miles away may be true, but it cannot have the same weight with us as the word of our own citizens, whom we know and respect, and whose evidence we can so easily prove.

Making Sure.

A story is told of a farmer who was having trouble with his horse. It would start, walk about 20 yards or so, then stop for a few seconds and start again, only to repeat the performance. After watching this exhibition for some time a friend overtook the farmer during one of the horse's long waits. "What's the matter with the horse?" he asked. "Is it lame?" "Not as I know of," answered the farmer very crossly, "but he's so dashed fevered I'll say 'whoa' and he won't hear me, so he stops every now and then to listen."—The Tatler.

WAR TAX RULING.

To avoid apparent confusion in the minds of the public regarding the collection of the tax on toilet articles and proprietary medicines, the Bureau of International Revenue, has issued a statement advising both dealers and purchasers that tax of 1 cent for each 25 cents or fraction thereof of the amount paid is on the article itself and not on the total amount paid by the customer when two or more such articles are purchased.

For example, if a tube of tooth paste costs 35 cents and a bottle of perfume 65 cents, the tax is 2 cents on the tooth paste and 3 cents on the perfume, a total of 5 cents and not 4 cents as computed on the total amount paid by the purchaser.

If toilet powder sells at 10 cents a box is one cent; if two boxes are bought the tax is two cents, although the total amount paid by the purchaser is 20 cents; and if three boxes are bought for 25 cents, the tax is 3 cents.

The regulation providing that where two or more packages of cough drops are sold for 25 cents the tax shall be 1 cent is revoked, the tax being at the rate of 1 cent for each 25 cents or fraction thereof of the amount paid for a single package.

Doesn't hurt a bit! Drop a little "Freezone" on an aching corn, instantly that corn stops hurting, then shortly you lift it right off with fingers. Truly!

Your druggist sells a tiny bottle of "Freezone" for a few cents, sufficient to remove every hard corn, soft corn, or corn between the toes, and the calluses, without soreness or irritation.

Millions in Salmon.

Since the Columbia river salmon canning industry was started by pioneer fishermen in 1876 a total of $130,000,000 worth of salmon has been taken from the 90,000 acres of fishing territory in the river from Cascade locks to its mouth.—Brooklyn Eagle.

"CAN'T RECOMMEND IT TOO HIGHLY"

Miller Was Forced By Stomach
Trouble and Rheumatism To Give Up His Business

"Nothing ever helped me until I got Tanlac, and that's saying a good deal, for I have been trying for eight years to get relief," said Robert Miller, 419 Market street, Louisville, Ky. Mr. Miller, who was in the hardware business in Detroit for ten years, was forced to retire eight years ago on account of ill health, but is now feeling so well he is thinking of going back in business again.

"Yes, sir, for eight years before I began taking Tanlac I had suffered from rheumatism and stomach trouble," said Mr. Miller. "The rheumatism was principally in my legs and back, and was so bad I could hardly walk without a cane and if I stooped over the pain in my back was so severe it was all I could do to keep from crying out. My stomach was so badly upset nearly everything I ate hurt me, and I could not eat any solid food at all. I usually enjoyed my evening meal more than any other, but most of the time I dared not eat anything at all at that time, for if I did I would suffer from it all night long. I had lost so much weight and was in such bad condition I was greatly worried over the outlook."

"One day I read where Tanlac had relieved a man who described his condition as being similar to mine, so I decided to try it myself, and I am surely glad I did, for I am feeling better now than I have in years. My rheumatism is all gone, my stomach doesn't give me any more trouble, and I can eat anything I want at any time of the day or night and never have a particle of trouble from it afterwards. I sleep well, have gained several pounds in weight, and as I am still taking Tanlac I am picking up and feeling better and better every day. After what Tanlac has done for me I don't think I can recommend it too highly."

BRISTOW WITHDRAWS FROM RACE FOR CONGRESS

Judge L. L. Bristow, of Georgetown has withdrawn as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Seventh district, leaving A. B. Hammond, of Irvine, who was Congressman Cantrell's opponent two years ago, as his party's only candidate, thus avoiding the necessity of Republican participation in the primary in this district in August. In his letter asking that his name be withdrawn, Judge Bristow states that when he filed declaration papers he was under the impression that no Republican had offered for the nomination, and since he had learned Mr. Hammond is a candidate he was unwilling to put the State to the expense of conducting a primary in the district.

RECORD NUMBER TEACHERS TAKING SUMMER COURSE

The last examination for teachers' certificates, showed a marked improvement over the former one, according to Superintendent of Public Instruction George Colvin. There was little evidence of copying and this was confined to two or three counties which are now being investigated, he said.

As a result of this method of certification Superintendent Colvin says there are more teachers attending summer schools in the two normals and at the University of Kentucky than at any time in their history. Better prepared teachers, he said, means better taught schools, better taught schools means better educated children and better educated children means a higher type of citizenship.

At the last examination there were 1,527 applicants for elementary certificates, 484 elementary certificates of the first grade issued and 537 of the second grade. There were forty applicants for State certificates and eighteen issued. The total number of certificates issued were 1,097, with 450 failures.

UNDERTAKERS CUT FUNERAL COSTS.

(Courier-Journal)

Every family in the United States which has had a funeral in the last year can thank the Kentucky undertakers for a saving of from $5 to $20 and even more. This applies to Louisville, in the center of the United States, and to the farthest points in the North, East, South or West. This was brought out at the opening session of the annual convention of the Funeral Directors' Association of Kentucky in the auditorium of the Tyler Hotel. The saving was made possible by reason of the initiative taken by the Kentucky funeral directors to bring about the revocation of a 5 per cent. war tax on caskets and coffins, which would have placed those articles, from the standpoint of taxation, in the list of "luxuries." When you consider the average saving and the number of funerals in the United States in a year, you will realize the many millions of dollars saved the people," said the State Secretary, W. E. Pearson, Louisville. The fight of the Kentucky Association was reviewed by President W. G. Dunlap, Danville, in a report and by the committee representing the directors.

Extension Telephone Service In the Office

Extension telephones, for connection with your present service in office or home, are now available.

There is still a shortage of switchboard and of cable which prevents the installation of new telephones in some sections of the city, but this does not affect extension telephone service, on existing lines.

Many offices have expanded so that additional extension telephones are needed. The time saved more than pays the small monthly charge.

In the home there is no greater convenience than an extension telephone on the other floor or beside the bed.

Call the manager's office today and arrange for this service.

The blonde maidens of the Rhine apparently have no attractions for two Kentucky soldiers. They describe themselves in a letter to THE NEWS, as being very lonesome, indeed. They hope that among the girls of Paris or vicinity may be found two with whom they may enter into correspondence. But let them speak for themselves:

"MICKEY" IS DEAD

"Mickey," the Irish terrier belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Swift Champ, and known to almost everyone in Paris, was accidentally killed Friday by being run over by an automobile. "Mickey" came to Paris from the Penn Square Kennels, in Philadelphia. In condolences expressed by Mr. Frank P. Smith, proprietor of the Penn Square Kennels, he added the following eloquent tribute paid by the late U. S. Senator George G. Vest, of Missouri, said to have been the most feeling tribute to a dog ever paid:

"The best friend a man has in this world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles its cloud upon our heads. The one absolutely unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog."

"A man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he may be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer, he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces he is as constant in his love as the sun in its journey through the heavens. If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scenes of all comes, and death takes the master in its embrace, his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by his graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad, but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even to death."

THE FINANCE COMMITTEE.

The Inter-church World Movement is to be continued "on a greatly modified scale." This was voted by the General Committee in New York on recommendation of a sub-committee of 11. A committee of 15 was appointed to confer with representatives of the 30 denomination co-operating and to recommend a plan of re-organization. A budget of $75,000 was authorized and churches were called on to meet their obligations.

A number of important Methodist gatherings will be held during the next few weeks at the Kavanaugh Camp Grounds, Crestwood, near Louisville. The first will be that of the Conference Training School for the two conferences, Louisville and Kentucky, which will open on July 20 and continue through July 26. This will be followed July 29 to August 3, by a convention of the Methodist Girls' Missionary Society, and on August 5 a camp meeting will begin to continue through August 15, the preaching to be done by the Rev. Carl Gregory, of Owensboro.

A number of Sunday School specialists have been secured to conduct the school, among them Prof. J. H. Montgomery, Richmond, Va., who will be general director; Miss Mary Alice Jones, South Carolina, primary work; Miss Bruce McDonald, South Carolina, junior work; the Rev. C. O. Shugart, Texas, young people's work; the Rev. Emmet Hightower, Nashville, adult work; Dr. E. B. Crooke, Virginia, pupil study; Prof. E. T. Spencer, Winchester, Ky., method of teaching; the Rev. RULES FOR SWIMMERS

Tom Robinson, veteran swimming coach, presents these rules for swimmers:

Wait at least an hour after eating before swimming.
Do not go in bathing alone. There is safety in numbers.
Never accept an invitation to ride in a canoe if you can not swim.
In entering the water keep the hands under so if you step into a hole you can immediately start swimming.
In learning to swim, move toward the shore; never swim away from the beach.
Keep out of water if you are subject to heart trouble.
Never swim until exhausted. Don't "show off."
If caught in the undertow, try at once to float.
Learn them by heart.
Remember them when you come near the bathing beach.
Bear them in mind, boys, when you visit the old swimmin' hole.

OPIE READ SAYS COX SURE TO WIN.

Opie Read, the noted writer and lecturer, who spoke here Friday night on the Redpath Chautauqua program, says Gov. Cox, the Democratic candidate for the Presidency, is sure to win his race. Read is a Republican in politics and in his earlier years made public speeches for McKinley. He was associated intimately with Senator Harding, the Republican nominee during one of their Chautauqua engagements, speaking in the afternoon, while Harding spoke at night. He knows both of the candidates personally and very intimately, and his prophecy as to Cox's chances may be taken as coming from one in authority. Mr. Read is a native Kentuckian, and has been engaged in newspaper and literary work all his life. His intimate knowledge of politics and men in public life warrants the assertion that his estimate of Cox's chances may be taken as an accurate one.

CHAMPION FISH STORY

Here's the champion fish story of the season, although the season is not so very old just yet: While fishing on the "rocky shore," on Stoner Creek, a few miles from Paris, Jerry Wilson, colored fisherman, made what is perhaps the most remarkable catch that has been recorded among local fishermen. Wilson was fishing without a cork, and felt a slight nibble, like an electric thrill, running from the tip of his fishing rod. He drew in the line and was astonished to find firmly attached to the hook a string of fish, comprising two large bass, five catfish and a bream of good size. All of the fish were still alive, and had evidently been recently caught. The fish which bit at the bait was the last one on the string. They had evidently escaped from some fisherman up stream a short time before, and had floated down to where they became unintentionally on their part or on the part of Wilson, his game. There is no chance now for the owner to identify them.

HAS ARM BROKEN.

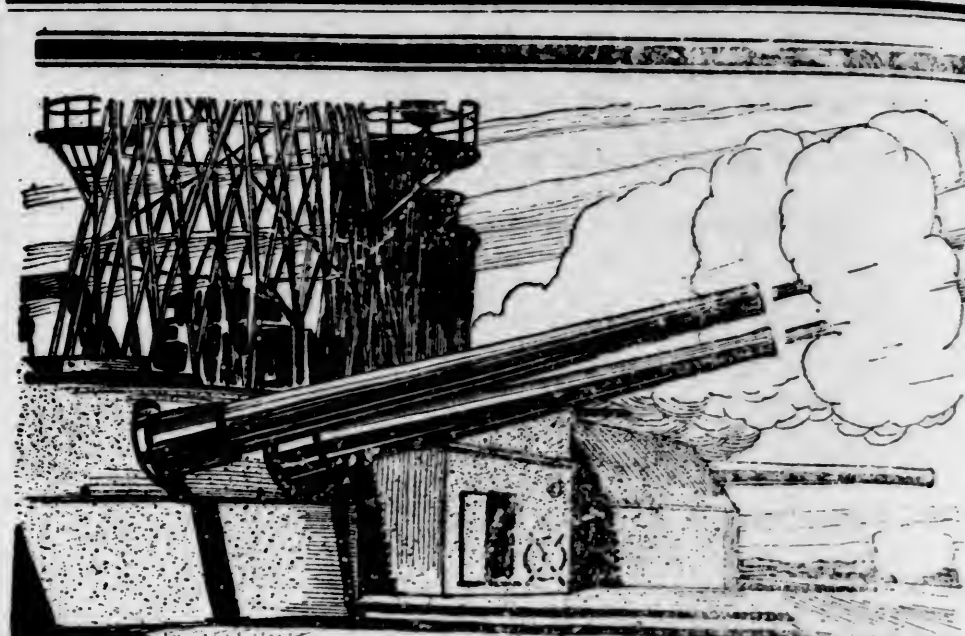

While cranking his automobile yesterday Mr. Boone Baldwin, member of the grocery firm of Baldwin Bros., had his right arm broken, when the crank slipped, striking him on the member. He was removed to his home, where the injured member was given medical attention.

L. & N. BUSINESS RUSHING.

On account of heavy shipments of melons and fruits from the Southern growers, business over the Louisville & Nashville through Paris is rushing. Train crews are kept on the go day and night, hauling the perishable stuffs. Through trains loaded with fruit shipments are a daily occurrence here at present. The shipments are made direct to

The wheat crop in Bourbon county seems to be excellent, with good-sized stalks, headings large and kernels firm. The crop seems to be better than usual, many fields indicating a yield of thirty to forty bushels to the acre. Local millers and dealers quoted $2.65 per bushel as the opening price yesterday. The wheat harvest is now on and deliveries will soon begin.

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT.

Patrons of the Grand Opera House have made numerous complaints of the view of pictures being obstructed by persons passing in front of the projecting machine, in seeking seats in the balcony. THE NEWS does not know what the remedy might, could or should be, but it is a self-evident fact that it has become very annoying. Just at some time when there is something thrilling being projected on the screen, the view of those on the lower floor is temporarily obstructed by the passing of people in front of the machine. Especially is the eclipse noticeable when the head of the obstructionist is adorned by a picture hat.

WEEK'S WEATHER GUESS

The weather predictions for the Ohio Valley for the week beginning yesterday, as sent out by the Weather Bureau at Washington, is as follows:
Generally fair, except local thunderstorms about the middle of the week; seasonal temperatures.
Heavy rains fell Sunday morning throughout this section, supplementing the good work done for gardens and growing crops by previous rains. The streams of the county are flushed with fresh water and ponds have also received an increase of moisture. The rains caused a slight drop in the temperature, bringing relief from the intense heat of preceding days.

HORSES FOR THE BIG NEW YORK SALE.

Arthur B. The Bourbon county consignment will be sold under the hammer on Aug. 6.

Because of the unusual demand for horses and the high prices that are being quoted for transactions this year it is believed that the yearling sale at Saratoga will break all previous records. Nearly all the sales business in the country will be concentrated at Saratoga next month. E. J. Tranter, manager of the Fasig-Tipton Co., is of the opinion that the yearlings that will be offered at this sale will bring not less than one million dollars.

MESSAGE OF HOPE

To sweeten the stomach; gently move the bowels; flush the poison-clogged kidneys and enrich the weak, starved blood, this rare herb medicinal tonic is a real gift from nature.

WHOLESALEERS TO PAY 1 CENT GASOLINE TAX

The 1-cent gasoline tax for the State road fund will be paid by the wholesalers direct to the County Clerks, instead of being collected from the retailers after August 1. This plan was agreed upon at a conference held in Frankfort, attended by representatives of most of the wholesalers, the State Tax Commission and Attorney General Charles I. Dawson. Until that date, retailers will have to pay the tax themselves.

BITTER SWEETS.

Speaking of sugar, there was a tragedy experienced in Canada by a body of French monks who migrated thither. They knew that a popular sweet was obtained from the famous Tree of Canada, so they went forth into the woods and tapped and collected sap and boiled it down and put their maple syrup upon the market in beautiful packages. But alas, nobody would eat it! Investigation disclosed that the holy men, in their abundant and unquestioned faith, had tapped every old tree near the monastery, and this boiled-down juice from pine, hickory, spruce, maple, etc., did not appeal to the American palate. The public taste was not "educated up" to maple syrup with turpentine in it.—The Little Journal.

REMINDED REPUBLICANS OF LAVISH USE OF MONEY

The following strictures in the Democratic platform on account of the recent Republican convention, which Mr. Cummings aptly described as an "auction" rather than a convention, are eminently well deserved:

"The shocking disclosure of the lavish use of money by aspirants for the Republican nomination with the recent convention of a Republican Senator from the State of Michigan for the criminal transgression of the law limiting expenditures on behalf of a candidate for the United States Senate, it indicates the re-entry under Republican auspices of money as an influential factor in elections, thus nullifying the latter and flaunting the spirits of numerous laws enacted by the people to protect the ballot from the contamination of corrupt practices. We deplore these delinquencies and invoke their stern popular rebuke, pledging our earnest efforts to a strengthening of the present statutes against corrupt practices and their rigorous enforcement."

We remind the people that it was only by the return of a Republican Senator in Michigan, who is now under conviction, and sentence for the criminal misuse of money in his election, that the present organization of the Senate with a Republican majority was made possible.

THIS WILL ASTONISH PARIS PEOPLE.

The quick action of simple witch-hazel, camphor, hydrastis, etc., as mixed in Lavoptik eye wash, will surprise Paris people. One girl with weak, strained eyes was helped by a single application. COUNTRY GETTING TIRED OF NUMEROUS DRIVES

The abandonment of the Inter-Church World Movement, following the failure of a gigantic and elaborately-organized "drive" to raise nearly a billion and a half of dollars, can be accounted to something more than denominational differences of opinion—although these, noticeable, had something to do with it. The "drive" failed because drives have gone emphatically out of fashion. For some little time, now, big business men have realized that drives were doing the country's finances serious harm, and that successive drives, following those which were really necessary and commendable, during the war, were encouraged, if not actually created by a class of men who were conducting drives as a regular occupation.

Several months ago a big financial institution of New York sent out circulars to similar institutions, calling attention to the considerable class of men, since the war, who made a profession of raising money by public subscription. The circular described the activities of certain men who were named, and pointed out facts that went to show that a good many drives might never have occurred but for the inciting impulse imparted by some organization of drive experts, for the moment out of a job. Had the Inter-Church Drive come along soon after the war, the enormous sum which was its objective would no doubt have been quickly raised.

America is quick to give in amazing amounts to worthy causes. There are so very many people who are actually gratified by an opportunity to do good by merely giving money, and there are, besides, so many people who are happy to pay well for a chance to see their names in the papers. Even now the Inter-Church Drive might have succeeded but for the spread among men who quickly control finances in its big and little details of the idea that we have had enough drives for some time to come.

Tribute to the Pen.

The pen, like the sword, has a dark side to its history. Not only has it created a good deal of rubbish, but it has appealed to the evil passions of the ignorant and the disloyal; it has incited anarchy, sedition and hatred. But to the pen we are indebted for all the books of the world. It has enabled poets to sing to us, fictionists to charm us, philosophers and men of science to share with us their valuable knowledge; it gives us the Bible, it inspired civilization. It is a mighty agent "Beneath the rule of men entirely great."

Deafness That Isolates.

Deafness does not necessarily spell stupidity, although a great many people seem to think so. There are any number of clever, intelligent people of good education and broad views who through illness or accident become hard of hearing—or partially deaf. Isolation is the hardest thing a partially deaf person has to contend with, and when one is denied general intercourse with others one is apt to grow selfish and self-centered.

Tattoo Marks.

Although tattoo marks are generally asserted to be indelible if produced by the insertion of carbonaceous matter, it is said they will disappear if a little well rubbed with a salve of pure acetic acid and lard, then with a solution of potash, and finally with hydrochloric acid. It would be advisable to consult a skin specialist.

Verazzani's Discovery of America. A French writer is distributing a pamphlet showing that most of the Atlantic coast of the United States was discovered by the French explorer Verazzani in 1524, and urging that in 1924 the 400th anniversary of the discovery be duly celebrated in the United States.

The term "Grand Old Man" was applied to Mr. Gladstone in 1882, and is accredited to John Bright, who used it in a speech that year in Northampton, England. In America the phrase was appropriated and changed by members of the Republican party, who affectionately called it the "Grand Old Party." This at once became a newspaper slogan and in the headlines was shortened to "G. O. P."

Suppose You Had to Rebuild Every 14 Years?

If you knew that most everything in your house had to be rebuilt every 14 years you would—if you were wise—lay aside one-fourteenth of the cost every year, to be used in replacing the stairs, windows and other parts when they wore out.

If you were renting that house to someone else, you would have to charge enough rent to provide that one-fourteenth a year, besides taxes, insurance, current or temporary repairs and interest.

That is exactly what the telephone company must do if it is to stay in business permanently—charge enough for its service to provide each year's quota of this rebuilding money, besides all other expenses.

That constant wearing out is "depreciation", and the annual quota to meet it is the "depreciation reserve"—and it is just as necessary as the wages for the company's employees!

Europe's Potato Crop.

In Europe potatoes are grown of different kinds for different purposes. Certain varieties are raised for cooking and others for starch making and distilling. Over there they have a so-called "stock potato," which is not used for human food at all. It is very large and coarse of texture and is utilized for feeding cattle. The yield to the acre is twice the ordinary, and the tubers being exceedingly rich in starch are great alcohol producers.

Plenty of Cream of Tartar Here.

Americans have for generations spent millions of dollars a year in Italy for cream of tartar, a household necessity which the grape regions of the United States can well supply. This is a by-product collected from the sediment of the fermenting vats and the sides of the tanks, against which it crystallizes during storage.

Maybe That's So.

Jud Tunkins says many a man would be more prosperous if he could get as enthusiastic over his own business as he does over the efforts of a perfect stranger to land a hit that'll bring in a run.—Washington Star.

"MARSE HENRY" WATTERSON SAYS

HENRY WATTERSON

Henry Watterson

The Courier-Journal
Louisville

June 13, 1920.

Parties may come and go, politicians may rise and fall; but the education of the youth of the country goes on forever.

Our rural schools have in the past been too often dragged into the mire of local politics, and it is gratifying to know that both parties joined hands at the last session of the Legislature and passed laws which will go a long way toward keeping our rural schools out of the political game.

While every voter in Kentucky is interested in the Presidential election next November, there is every reason why the election of strong men to the new County Boards of Education should be neglected. A good, clean board will select a capable Superintendent, and keep both him and the schools free from any entanglement which might hurt the children.

HAS SYMPATHY FOR THE TELEPHONE GIRLS

The Bluffton Banner has bravely taken up the cudgels for the hello girls and the telephone company. Hear what the Banner has to say:

"Never again!"

A Banner reporter came out of the local telephone office this morning with more human kindness in his soul for a telephone operator than he had ever thought abided in his bosom. For a few minutes—just a few—the Banner man was allowed to watch five girls plug. Plug? Well, we'll say they plugged. Calls were coming at the rate of a thousand an hour, and these five girls had both hands going now slipping down off the stool to reach for a plug a little out of the way, now asking kindly, "Number, please," and all the time keeping both arms going. No time to stop to argue the point with a customer, no time to think of what'll I wear to church to-morrow if I get off, but plug, plug. Oh, the tire-someness of plugging! You get tired for them, watching the operation. A girl works a few hours and it relieved to rest. And she needs the rest by the time she gets it.

"Watching these girls work is an object lesson, and one that will take all the kick out of a subscriber wanting central and not getting her as soon as the subscriber thinks he should get her."

MILLERSBURG

—Mrs. Alice Best, of Maysville, is the guest of her sisters, Mrs. Anna Barnes and Mrs. Bessie Caldwell.

—Mrs. Adah McClintock and daughters, Misses Anna James McClintock and Ruth McClintock, left Sunday for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Turner Perry, of Owingsville.

—The seventh annual Chautauque closed here Saturday evening with "The Metropolitan Quintette Co." Six of these Chautauques have been put on by the White-Myers System, of Kansas City, Mo., and from the time the Chautauque was first inaugurated in Millersburg the program has grown better each year. On Wednesday evening the "Comedy Club Male Quartette" gave a prelude to the lecture of Dr. Adams, whose subject was "Grapes and Gold," taking as the basis of his subject a Japanese legend. It was well handled, and the only complaint made was that it was entirely too short. Thursday afternoon we were addressed by Dr. Clarke, subject "Play Ball." He compared life to a base ball game, and the comparison ran together through his entire lecture. On Thursday evening we had the New York Broadway Company, in "Peg O' My Heart." All the characters did their work nicely. Friday afternoon Verre's Royal Hawaiian's entertained a large audience. Their music was in keeping with most of the Hawaiian companies. Friday evening we had the Hawaiians again in prelude to Dr. James Whitcomb Brougher, of Los Angeles, Cal., in his well chosen lecture, "What's Under Your Hat." His was by far the best lecture of the series. Saturday afternoon we had the pleasure of listening to Dr. Allen A. Tanner. His lecture was prefaced by the Metropolitan Opera Quintette Company. His subject was "The Heart of The Toller." He dealt largely with the labor problem and brought us face to face with many of the serious problems and dangers now confronting us. Saturday evening we listened to the Metropolitan Company in full concert. Their numbers were well chosen and on the whole were very good. The Chautauque will be continued next year. More than a hundred guarantors have signed the contract with the White-Myers System for another year. For the first time since Millersburg has been conducting Chautauques we went over the top.

THIN PEOPLE

SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Says Nothing Like Plain Argo-Phosphate to Put On Firm, Solid Stay-There Flesh and Muscle and Increase Strength, Vim, Vigor and Nerve Force.

Physicians claim there is nothing that will increase weight, strength and endurance like organic phosphate commonly known by druggists as argo-phosphate; it is inexpensive and is sold by all leading druggists everywhere under a guarantee to give satisfaction or money refunded. Weakness and thinness are usually due to starved nervous conditions. Our bodies need more phosphates than are contained in the foods we eat.

If you wish a more rounded figure and plump well-developed arms, neck and bust in place of hollows you should simply take plain argo-phosphate, as it builds up and restores run-down nervous conditions by phosphatizing the system. It transforms the appearance and an increase in weight it oftentimes quickly produced.

The increase in weight also aids in improving the general health. Sleeplessness, nervousness, lack of energy and ambition quickly disappear.

Pale cheeks are changed to rosy ones and dull eyes become bright. Miss Lena Brown of Atlanta, Ga., who only weighed 90 pounds reports that she gained 10 pounds in two weeks time and says argo-phosphate has made a different person of her and she has never felt better in her life.

SPECIAL NOTICE—Owing to the fact that so many physicians and druggists are recommending argo-phosphate for relieving all nervous, worn-out debilitated conditions and the unusually large sale for argo-phosphate there will be found in the market numerous substitutes for the genuine article. All imitations are inferior preparations and owing to its unusual flesh producing qualities it should not be used by any one unless they desire to put on flesh and increase in weight. Dispensed by Brooks & Snapp Drug Co. (July 13-Aug. 10.)

R. ED. BEDFORD ANNOUNCES CANDIDACY FOR SHERIFF

I wish to announce to the voters of Bourbon County that I am a candidate for the office of Sheriff.

I have never before been a candidate for public office, and if honored will not again be a candidate, and thereby not interfere in the aspirations of other worthy Democrats. I am not a candidate of any clique or clan and if elected, promise to give the same courteous and impartial treatment to all alike. If elected to the high office of Sheriff it will be my purpose to attend strictly to the duties of the office, and there will be no attempt on my part to dictate the future politics of the county.

Between now and the election, I will see each one personally, and until such time, I hope you will refrain from pledging your support.

If elected I will appoint as my Deputies Mr. D. E. Clark, of Millersburg, and Mr. W. Fred Link, of Paris.

Respectfully,
(9-21) R. ED. BEDFORD.
